

Attention Students & Parents!!

Continue your reading momentum over the summer!

There are so many FREE ways to read!!

1. Visit the Public Library. The public library has many great opportunities to read, learn, explore, and interact! For more information, visit: SequoyahRegionalLibrary.org/

Sequoyah Regional Library Summer Reading Program

2. Avery and CCSD Purchased eBooks:

- Avery Online Catalog
 - Go to the Media Center webpage located on the Avery Elementary website.
 - Choose the link Media Center Online Catalog.
 - Use your school network ID and network password to login
- Sora
 - Learn how to use the Sora online reading platform to access CCSD purchased eBooks. You can also connect to your Sequoyah Regional Library account to access public library eBooks! Watch this video with your parents.

3. MyCapstoneLibrary.com: As part of the Get Georgia Reading Campaign, students across Georgia have free access to thousands of eBooks through July 31st.
username: gaschools
password: gaschools
4. Storylineonline.net: Award-winning children's literacy website streams videos featuring celebrated actors reading children's books alongside creatively produced illustrations.
5. Little Free Library: Visit the Little Free Library across from Avery's front door to take a book, share a book, or both!!
6. RAZKids is available through the end of June.

This has been a special message from Mrs. Blakey, your Avery Media Specialist.